CAMERON COUNTY TO DEDICATE JAIME J. ZAPATA MEMORIAL BOAT RAMP

Cameron County Judge Carlos H. Cascos, Cameron County Commissioners' and the Zapata Family invite family, friends, law enforcement personnel and the community to the naming of the Boat Ramp along Highway 48 in honor of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Special Agent Jaime J. Zapata.

In recognition of his service and sacrifice to his country and community the Commissioners' Court, at its March 3, 2011, meeting approved the naming of the boat ramp in honor of Agent Zapata.

An avid outdoor sportsman, the Commissioners' Court, felt it fitting to name this well known boating and recreational area in honor of Jaime.

The ceremony will take place at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 7, 2011.

The boat ramp will be closed Saturday morning for this special event.
