

Fidel J. Calvillo
Public Health Response Program Director
Cameron County Department of Health and Human Services

Photo: Fidel J. Calvillo and
United States Surgeon General
Regina M. Benjamin, M.D. MBA

Fidel J. Calvillo currently serves as the Director of Public Health Response Program for Cameron County Department of Health and Human Services. Prior to becoming involved in Emergency Preparedness, Mr. Calvillo served as the Director of Infirmary Services for the Cameron County Jail facilities for 5 years. In May 2005, began his work in Public Health Emergency Preparedness and has provided assistance during several hurricane threats at the Cameron County Emergency Operation Center. Mr. Calvillo serves on local, regional, and state emergency planning groups and committees. He is the Incident Commander for Public Health Emergencies and disease outbreaks such as H1N1, in Cameron County and is currently the Cameron County Medical Reserve Corps Director. Mr. Calvillo also assists in serving as a Public Information Officer during a public health emergency.

Mr. Calvillo is a License Vocational Nurse graduate from Bee County College in Beeville, TX.