

Pedro Hinojosa, BBA
Operations Director
Cameron County Department of Health and Human Services

Mr. Pedro Hinojosa, BBA, began his employment with Cameron County Department of Health and Human Services as Messenger/Inventory Control in May 1999 and thru his education was able to advance his employment opportunities to take on the position of Director of Operations in December 2004. Mr. Hinojosa major work is in the preparation of financial statements, records, documents or reports for the Cameron County Department of Health and Human Services. His work involves the development and implementation of procedures and regulations to control the disbursing of all local and grant allocated funds for the Department of Health and Human Services. Mr. Hinojosa works with various county departments to establish operations endeavors and to maintain building issues.

Mr. Hinojosa professional career has focused in the support of varies public health programs within financial, human resources, operations, buildings and the learning and training of the Incident Command Structure. Mr. Hinojosa has received trainings within his employment with Cameron County Department of Health and Human Services in the following: IEMC Emergency Operations Center (EOC) Incident Management Team (IMT) Interface, Logistics Section Chief Training, All Hazards Incident Management Team, IS-700 National Incident Management System (NIMS) (an Introduction), IS-200 pending, ICS-300, Intermediate ICS for Expanding Incidents for Operational First Responders, I-400 Advance ICS, for Command and General staff – complex incidents, IS-100 pending, ICS 800 pending

Mr. Hinojosa received his Bachelors in Business Administration in Accounting from The University of Texas at Brownsville and Texas Southmost College in his hometown of Brownsville, Texas.