Cameron County to Conduct Dedication Ceremony in Laguna Heights

Laguna Heights, TX – Cameron County will hold a dedication ceremony Saturday, July 28, 2007, in Laguna Heights, Texas, for the naming of the Laguna Heights Community Park as the “Bejarano – McFarland Park.” The park dedication is in honor of Private First Class Adolfo Bejarano, Jr. and First Lieutenant Louis Henry McFarland, these two heroes made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom during the Vietnam War.

The Cameron County Commissioners’ Court unanimously voted on December 19, 2006, to adopt a resolution naming the Laguna Heights Community Park as the “Bejarano – McFarland Park.” This park is located in an area where both of these brave men have a strong bond to the community.

Bejarano and McFarland serve as an inspiration to everyone that attends the park and Cameron County is proud to name the Laguna Heights Community Park in honor of Private First Class Adolfo Bejarano, Jr. and First Lieutenant Louis Henry McFarland. A sign will also be unveiled immediately following the dedication ceremony that will display the name “Bejarano – McFarland Park.”

THE PRESS IS INVITED TO COVER THE CEREMONY. The address is 1806 Michigan Avenue, Laguna Heights, Texas. Press should set up by 9:45 am. (Directions: Brownsville-Port Isabel Hwy, Turn Left at TX-100, Turn right at N. 3rd St., Turn left at Michigan St.; Head east on W. Ocean Blvd/TX-100 toward N. Arroyo Blvd. Continue to follow TX-100, Turn left at 4th St., Turn right at Michigan St.)
