Cameron County To Conduct Dedication Ceremony In La Feria

La Feria, TX – Cameron County will hold a dedication ceremony Thursday, April 12, 2007, in La Feria, Texas, for the naming of the La Feria annex building as the “Judge Arturo R. Salas, Sr. Cameron County Annex Building – La Feria, Texas.” The building dedication is in honor of retired Justice of the Peace Arturo R. Salas, Sr., this is the result of a unanimous vote by the Commissioners’ Court on October 25, 2005.

The Judge Arturo R. Salas, Sr. Cameron County Annex Building in La Feria is another important addition to the County that provides services to the residents of northern Cameron County. This 5,491 square foot facility conveniently houses two Justice of the Peaces, a Tax office and a Constable’s office.

Judge Arturo R. Salas’ public service to Cameron County spanned more than ten years beginning with his appointment as Justice of the Peace for Precinct 7 in La Feria to fill an unexpired term. The retired Judge now spends his time with his loving family and is a parishioner of St. Francis Xavier in La Feria. He also keeps active at the Knights of Columbus, The Lions Club and American Legion Post 439.

THE PRESS IS INVITED TO COVER THE CEREMONY. The address is 100 Industrial Way, La Feria, Texas. Press should set up by 9:45 am. (Directions: US-83 N to exit FM-506/La Feria. Merge onto E Frontage Rd/US-83 N and turn left at Dukes Hwy/N Main St and turn left at Industrial Way.)
